

The Islamic Education School

Home of the “Bright Future”

Dress Code: Jr. High

All students are required to wear the school’s uniform as stated below and in the Parent Handbook.

- All students should wear a clean and neat uniform to school each day.
- TOPS: All students are required to wear a TIES-issued royal blue top.
- BOTTOMS: Young men are required to wear solid navy blue pants (no cargo, denim, or sweat pants). Young women may choose to wear solid navy blue pants, skirts, skorts, or jumpers (no cargo, denim, or sweat pants). Skirts, skorts, and jumpers have to be past the knees and worn with navy blue pants. No shorts or denim jeans of any color will be allowed. Young men are required to tuck their shirts into their pants.
- HEADWEAR:
 - Young men may wear qalansuwahs. No other headwear for males will be permitted.
 - Young women are to wear a TIES-issued two-piece scarf (beige with royal blue)
- OUTERWEAR Requirements: TIES-issued navy blue sweatshirts or jackets only.
- FOOTWEAR Requirements: Students may wear athletic shoes or flat casual shoes. Sandals, as well as shoes with heels, open toes, wheels, or cleats will not be permitted. Socks need to match the uniform (no bright colors).
- P.E. Requirements:
 - Students are to change into solid navy blue sweat pants with a TIES-issued red t-shirt during the PE period each day.
- All students are required to wear the TIES-issued red t-shirt on fieldtrips.
- ISLAMIC-DRESS may be worn on Fridays.
 - Young men may wear modest dishdashahs and qalansuwahs.
 - Young women may dress in modest abayas and head scarves.
 - Students are not to be overly dressed in Islamic fashions, and those choosing not to wear Islamic dress on Fridays need to wear the TIES uniform.

Item Description	Color	Price
Polo Shirt – short sleeve	royal blue	$15
Polo Shirt – long sleeve	royal blue	$17
Sweatshirt	navy blue	$17
Jacket	navy blue	$20
T-shirt – short sleeve	Red	$12
Girl’s Scarf – two-piece	beige & navy blue	$5